HAPPY CHRISTMAS FROM RYDE'S GLOBAL FAMILY

Dear Ryde Rotarians!

Christmas greetings to you from your former Norwegian exchange student from 1989(!), now just a few years older, but still remembering good times in Australia!! We are now in the process of sending our oldest son Simen through Rotary Youth Exchange to Australia (we hope), and he has just been picked out to go! Very exciting!! Maybe our whole family can celebrate Christmas in Australia next year -who knows!?

I wish you all all a Merry Christmas and all the best for the New Year!

Much love from Mette Andersen and family

Dear Ryde Rotarians,

Eight years ago you truly changed my life by letting me be an exchange student in your club. Keep up the amazing work you do! It makes young people experience and understand important values for tolerance, coexistence and peace. I wish you all a wonderful Christmas and a happy new year 2016!

Best wishes,
Andrea Müller (Switzerland)''

Dear Ryde Rotarians,

I am still doing fine myself and, in fact, this year became a turning point for me. In April, I moved from Fukuoko to Takushina, and put myself in a totally new environment to pursue my career, as a University lecturer. Takushima is famous for “Wasanbon” a fine-grained Japanese sugar, and “Narurokinroki”, a brand of sweet potatoes in Japan.

Ayumi Hira

Ambassadorial Scholar hosted by Rotary Club of Ryde in 1997/98.

Dearest Rotarians

Today I bought my first christmas tree! A quite complicated task by bicycle, but it was totally worth it. Fortunately it's a pretty warm today, pleasant 1 degree this morning: I definitely wouldn't say no to a nice christmas seafood lunch, outside in front of the house... or an awesome Rotary meeting with lots of laughs and good speeches! Talking about speeches, I think of you quite often when I have to give speeches at uni. Each time I hear Geoff's and Co.'s advices and tips of how to improve my presentations ;)

HAPPY CHRISTMAS EVERYONE!

Much love, Anna

To my dearest Rotarians,

Since a couple of weeks Jakob and I are on the road travelling through Australia. And I can tell you we love it! We've seen so many great things and nice places already. We had dinner with Wombats and Kangaroos in Bendeela, got some Donoughts from the Donoughtvan in Berry, enjoyed a beautiful campground right next to the beach in Dalmeny, experienced some rough winds in Port Albert and Cape Jaffa, drove along the beautiful Great Ocean Road, patted some Wallabys, Emus and Roos at a wildlife sanctuary and today we're on our way towards Adelaide.

We have the most wonderful time and there are still so many beautiful places and moments to come we're looking forward to. I hope you all are just enjoying your time as much as we are and we wish you the most wonderful Christmas with your friends and families!

Lots of Love

Emma and Jakob

LAST WEEK AS RECALLED BY ALLEN HORRELL

Our AGM started with several guests, Rotary Brass in the persons of Gladesville President Robert Erskine and our District Assistant Governor Paul Wynn, Blacktown City Rotarians Dick White and Bob Gardiner, and our 2016 Rotary Youth Exchange outbound to Finland student Maggie Miller-Wells accompanied by her Mum and Dad Annie and Craig.

PP Ken Allen gave us an update on the health of PP Martin Aston, who is in Hospital with a blood infection, but hopes to be home soon now that he is on antibiotics. On the brighter side, his Daughter-in-Law made Martin a Grandfather this week!

PP Adrian Hallett thanked the Meals on Wheels volunteers and reminded us that we need volunteers for the fifth Sunday in January. Graffiti was applied to the Epping Road pedestrian underpass on Saturday night, and removed by our team on Sunday morning, no doubt a frustrating result for the undesirables who style themselves "Graffiti Artists". We are winning the war on Paint Vandalism!

PP David James has his Christmas present wrapping roster nearly filled, with 50 Interact volunteers bolstering our numbers. PE Julie Thorp circulated the attendance sheet for next week's Christmas party stressing that there must be only one present per child.

President Victoria Gouel told us that the 12th January will be our first night back and will be a pool-side BBQ, but will be dry due to idiotic OH&S policies of the Next Gen management. There was a clear consensus on moving the BBQ to another location where un-Australian rules do not apply!

Youth Director Pat Mahony needs drivers for transporting RYLarians to RYLA, and pointed out that the annual RYLA Dinner is on the 12th January, same night as our poolside BBQ, and drinks are served there: $40 per head for Rotarians and Partners.

Pat then presented the club with a Timorese traditional scarf given by Timorese RYLarians as a thank you for this club's $4000 donation to support RYLA in Timor.

After a dinner of fish and chips, our AGM was called to order: with 33 club members we had a definite quorum. Our afore-mentioned Rotary Brass adjudicated our Presidential election, with John Brown being found the winner. The other Board positions were announced unopposed, and the AGM was closed.

PP Geoff Brennan announced that there will be a Gift Sale this weekend at Rosehill Racecourse with Style Setter being one of the sellers. Part of the proceeds will go to the Rotary Foundation.

Bob Kaye-Smith's ticket was drawn by Maggie, but the Joker was not drawn by Bob. Fines were meted out to me for not recognising the shorn Stefan Sojka on stage at the Haberfield Festa, Stefan for having rendered himself unrecognisable, Geoff for advertising his sale in the guise of a Rotary announcement, our Gladesville visitors for "dressing like Undertakers", PP Graham for driving past our anti-Graffiti team on Sunday without recognising them, President Victoria Gouel for hoarding the circulating sheets and rosters, and PP Charles for riding a Harley Fat Boy.

Blacktown visitors Dick and Bob revealed themselves to be friends of "Revered former Blacktown President Ian", PP Kalma McLellan's father. They presented Kalma with a photo poster of the first 50 presidents of Blacktown, her father appearing twice, and a bottle of Sharkey's Revenge, a survivor of one of her Dad's fundraising projects. It was a moving presentation.

Violette reported on her last two weeks, thanking Bob Kaye-Smith for taking her to the movies the weekend before last. She spent the last weekend with the Horrells while the Dodds were out of town. We took Violette out for Dinner on Friday night, Segway riding at Olympic Park on Saturday morning, watching movies on AppleTV on Saturday afternoon, then to Maritza Horrell's birthday party that night, to the Pop Culture Show at Parramatta on Sunday morning, then Sunday lunch with the whole family before dropping her back to the Dodds' place. A Busy Weekend! Violette was an absolute pleasure to host for the weekend so the thanks go both ways.

Then Maggie Miller-Wells gave us a presentation on herself and her family. She is 15years old, her brother Max is 18 but she assured us she is her parent's favourite! She lives in East Ryde but her parents have access to a beach house at Mackerel Beach which she loves. She also loves drawing and her dog.

Her year in Finland in a village just South of Turku will replace her year 10, with her re-joining her cohort in year 11 for HSC. Maggie started to explain why she wanted to go to Finland but couldn't Finnish! She wanted to say that she wants to immerse herself in the reality of a foreign country, not just google it on a computer! She thanked us and her parents for sending her to Finland for an entire year, and admitted she has difficulty imagining being away from home for so long.

"A year seems like a long time now but it'll Finnish before you know it!" I told her helpfully. More helpfully I gave her Anna's email address so she can ask her anything about Finland before she goes. We then brought the meeting to a Finnish by singing the Anthem. Not a bad night for an AGM.

Percentage Attendance 8th December: 106.25%

Makeups: PP Artin Etmekdjian, Rtn Nora Etmekdjian.

Apologies: PDG Les Whitcroft, PP Burkhart Foertsch, PP Jan Cutler, PP John Higgins, PP Martin Aston, PP Noel Dunn, PP Patrick Longfield, PP Tony Abboud.
